Subject: Thank You!

Just a quick note to thank everyone who made my birthday dinner yesterday evening so enjoyable.

I didn't actually book the table until yesterday lunchtime, but whoever answered the phone, picked up on the fact that I mentioned that as it was my birthday I didn't want to cook dinner myself last night. The table confetti was a lovely touch, and to be serenaded (!) by such an enthusiastic ensemble was delightful. I can't remember the last time someone sang 'Happy Birthday' to me or that I had a birthday candle to blow out.

Many thanks to Danielle and the team for the excellent service - and complimentary Mascarada which, for someone who adores Disaronno, was a revelation.

Once again, many thanks for a memorable evening.

Kind regards

Stephanie Mays
